PRESS QUOTES

"Feature-length documentary cinema is still thriving if you know where to find it, and the even better news is that DOC NYC — America's largest documentary film festival — is back to collect an absolute ton of it in one place."

- IndieWire

"You have the Critics Choice Awards, you have the Cinema Eye Honors... but the [documentary group] that has the most influence or could be the most predictive is the DOC NYC Short List. That's the one to look at!"

- Anne Thompson, IndieWire

"A key campaign stop for filmmakers hoping to garner a spot on the Oscar documentary shortlist, [DOC NYC] has also become a place where more documentarians are choosing to premiere their work."

- Addie Morfoot, Variety

"Over the last decade, the vast majority of nonfiction Oscar nominees — and nine out of 10 feature winners — have stopped off at DOC NYC before continuing their red carpet tours. This isn't exactly a surprise, considering that the 14-year-old event is now the biggest documentary film festival in the country."

- Elizabeth Weitzman, Time Out NY

"One of the year's most fascinating documentary festivals, DOC NYC is an annual cross-section of the latest and greatest in non-fiction cinema."

- Joshua Brunsting, Criterion Cast

"One of the best festivals in the world."

- Steve Kopian, Unseen Films

"There is no better celebration of the crème de la crème of the [documentary] genre than the annual, autumnal return of DOC NYC. DOC NYC has culled incredible films by the most innovative voices of our time."

- Christine Connallon, Neon Graffiti
